Greetings from the
Lion Breweries Shire Horse
Team.

The Shire is the world's largest breed of horse and over the years has been used for a variety of work.

During the Middle Ages they carried armour laden knights into battle.

In more recent history they have been utilised to haul loads of beer from breweries.

Today you will see the Lion Breweries Shire Horse Team return to the traditions of yesteryear, delivering authentic wooden kegs of beer to inner city pubs where customers can savour the unique taste of "beer off the wood".
